

STRONIC DREI – The pulse of a new eroticism

The third of the bunch, STRONIC DREI is right up there with its trailblazing predecessors EINS and ZWEI. Just turn on this sturdy companion once to get an idea of how much passion the revolutionary pulsator bestows.

Bremen, May 2013 – The STRONIC DREI, thanks to its prominent structuring and the pulsating STRONIC stimulation, pleasures bit by bit upon insertion. Every single elevation boosts the intensity of the thrusting movements. With its slightly bent shape the STRONIC DREI stimulates the g-spot while the thicker toy end arouses the clitoris. The holding support makes it possible to safely use for anal fun, pleasuring the anus and perineum, allowing men to enjoy the STRONIC DREI too!

Not that the STRONIC DREI could replace your lover – but not much is missing when this powerful StrongTOY with its ten finely tuned, exciting stimulation levels brings you to climax, thrust for thrust, both vaginally and anally. The rhythmic back and forth movements are not only surprisingly new, but also extremely naturalistic and thrilling – for both men and women!

The pulsator STRONIC DREI comes with an internationally patented unique power unit with especially powerful impulses. Its perfected shape, ten adjustable stimulation rhythms and an innovative control unit for intuitive handling all make the STRONIC DREI an absolute must.

STRONIC DREI – the first pulsator for vaginal and anal pleasures.

With its slightly bent shape, the STRONIC DREI stimulates the g-spot or the prostate in a variety of ways. Gently increasing, wild, massive or pumping. Every ridge on the silicone shaft boosts the thrilling sensation that STRONIC DREI gives – from lightly stimulating to really exciting! A thicker element at the end of the toy promises real pleasure and pampers the clitoris, perineum or the anus.

The STRONIC DREI is robuster than some of its counterparts and therefore is more suitable to the “Heavy User” who loves to play with fire. As unique as the toy is, the secret to its success is simple: the slower the more intense. Its particular appeal lies in the lower frequencies levels. The powerful impulse of the unique motor leaves the run of the mill hyper-pumping vibrators in the dust and captivates with a uniquely stimulating erotic adventure.
